List here at least five main points of the reading assignment with page references. What seems to be important? What does the author claim?

Example: p.9: H. claims that "Being" is the most fundamental concept in philosophy and outlines that it originates with the pre-Socratic philosophers

List here concepts that you did not understand

Example: p.12: ontology

Formulate here questions that you have about the readings

Example: p.14: I do not understand why H. claims that "Being" is not a concept
